Re: Next Cleaners, LLC v. Jonathan Mioduszewski, et. als.
Case No.: 17-222-MCA-MAH

Dear Judge Hammer:

Please accept this letter as an update from the parties as to the items listed in the Court's December 19, 2018 Text Order. Mr. Mioduszewski encountered some health complications and is unable to produce his documents by the time period proscribed by the Court. However, counsel for the other parties graciously consented to extend the date for production of documentation to January 22, 2019.

At this time no other dates needs to be adjusted and the parties are determined to complete the ordered tasks by the February 8, 2019 conference call with the Court. If any other complications arise we will promptly contact the Court.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

/s Jeffrey Heldman
